

Mark Buck

Akin Dupont Member Mark Buck is a Toronto born artist who has been involved in the art business for over 40 years. After managing two Toronto art galleries he taught secondary high school students visual art, Photoshop, and photography for 19 years. Mark has been a member of Akin Dupont since 2016. His premiere exhibition was held at Youngplace Artscape from June 4- 16 2018. Mark's multilayered 3D kinetic acrylic paintings called "Mondragams" were featured at the 61st Toronto Outdoor Art Fair from July 10-17 2022. Mark's acrylic paintings, Mondragams and Mixed Media

Mondragam #4. An image of Mark Buck's work, Mondragam #4 Colour Wave #1. A bright work with 3D squares of various depths arranged in a symmetrical way. The squares are primarily red, yellow, green, brown and blue